ENGLISH TUTORING

To ensure you get the best out of our English language courses we will ensure proper evaluation methods will be in place both before the course begins and after. A placement test prior to the course training will be administered for all course attendees and assessment tests after the training will determine the progress.

Our fully qualified native-English speaking teachers are experts in Business English training and have had years of experience teaching comfortably and successfully using English to non-native speakers.

The curriculum is designed by the director of studies and has been developed to ensure you get the most out of the bespoke courses thereby guaranteeing your improvement in English communication.
